Great Western II Single-Action Revolver

The Grand Prize this summer is a tribute to the Durango Kid as portrayed in a series of classic B-Westerns by Charles Starrett.

All but forgotten today, the Durango Kid was a popular cowboy hero with movie audiences, especially young Buckaroos growing up during the Golden Age of the westerns from the 1930's through the mid-1950's. In a career that lasted from 1926 to 1952, Starrett appeared in more than 160 movies, becoming the leading western star at Columbia Pictures. 65 of those movies were Durango Kid features. Featured in this tribute to the Durango Kid is a magnificent 1873 Great Western II single-action revolver in .45 Colt caliber. This beautiful bright nickel gun has a 4 3/4" barrel and white checkered two-piece grips.

Also included is a unique and beautiful exact replica of the Durango Kid's holster rig made by Jim Lockwood, of Legends in Leather, several years ago. It is hand carved black leather with white lacing and white bullet loops. You almost never see lacing on modern gun leather!

This is a superb and highly collectible outfit that anyone would be proud to own and show!
I am pleased to offer it as the Grand Prize this year.

Tickets are still only $10 each or 11 tickets for $100 US.

Ruger Single-Six Single-Action Revolver

The Second Prize this year is a Ruger New Model Single-Six single-action revolver. This gun has two cylinders for .22 LR and .22 Magnum. The .22 Magnum is one of my all-time favorite cartridges. This high quality gun is blue with a 6" barrel and adjustable rear sights. This gun was generously donated to the foundation by Ed Prince of Fairfield, IL. This is a fun gun that anyone would enjoy owning and shooting!

3rd Prize

Semi-Automatic Mossberg Model 702 Plinkster

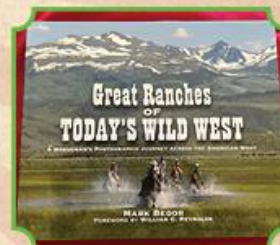

Our Third Prize this year is a semi-automatic Mossberg Model 702 Plinkster. This is a fun little .22 rifle with an 18" barrel and a durable synthetic stock. As the cost and availability of ammunition has become a problem over the past few months, more and more shooters are rediscovering the joy of shooting .22 LR! All the firearms offered in this drawing are real guns and subject to all Federal and State laws and regulations.
